

Cover Story — Page 4

A Stryker mortar carrier leaves a C-130 that has just landed at Bicycle Lake Army Airfield at the National Training Center, Fort Irwin, Calif.
— SFC Gary Ogilvie

CONTE

Soldiers | July 2003 | Vol

NTS

u m e 5 8 , N o . 7

Page 36

Page 4

Page 23

Page 44

Features

Freeing Najaf	4
Cheering Iraqis greeted 101st Airborne Division soldiers as the Americans secured the city of An Najaf and prepared it for life after Saddam.
Real-World Trauma Training	12
While training in Miami, Army physicians, nurses and medics deal with wounds and injuries like those they'll see on the battlefield.
Stryker Update	18
New versions of the wheeled Stryker combat vehicle and advanced communications systems are joining the Stryker Brigade Combat Team.
Far East Tour 1950-53	23
In text, photos and detailed graphics we present an up-close view of the equipment soldiers carried into battle in Korea.
Defusing Danger	36
Prospective explosive ordnance disposal technicians learn their craft through tough, realistic training and hands-on experience.
- EOD in Iraq	40
EOD teams will be busy for some time ridding Iraq of mountains of still-deadly ordnance.
- EOD in Afghanistan	43
Wrapping up the EOD mission in Afghanistan remains a dangerous and challenging task.

Departments

2	Mail Call
8	On Point
28	Postmarks
30	Lifestyles
32	Legal Forum
34	Sharp Shooters
48	Focus on People

TRADOC Turns 30	44
Since its 1973 creation the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command has been leading the Army into the future.	